10 September 2022

His Majesty King Charles III
Clarence House
London
SW1A 1BA

Your Royal Highness,

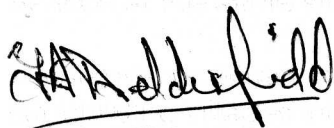

On behalf of the people of Great Totham we send our deepest condolences to you and the Royal Family on the death of Her Majesty the Queen. The Nation and the wider world owes a huge debt of gratitude to Her Majesty for her unstinting contribution and inspiration.

Our Village includes one the highest points in Essex and has a Beacon at its Beacon Hill, the original being put there at the time of the first Queen Elizabeth to warn of the Spanish Armada. Since 1988 we have been honoured to celebrate the major milestones in the reign of Queen Elizabeth the Second by lighting our replacement Beacon at the same site.

These events attract large numbers of people from Great Totham and the surrounding villages including at the last lighting, to celebrate Her Majesty's Platinum Jubilee on 2 June of this year, and are a testimony to her late Majesty's popularity and influence.

Whilst remembering and mourning Her Majesty, we also send greetings to you on your accession as our King and look forward to your long and successful reign.

Yours sincerely

F A Delderfield,
Chairman of the Council

C R Potter
Clerk to the Council
